Dealing with preservers, doubters and critics.

If I had asked people what they wanted, they would have said: faster horses …” Henry Ford
Berlin - international flagship and a cultural hotspot.
The wall fell and the divided city became the capital of a united Germany.
Berlin has developed into the world's leading cultural and political center that we experience today.
Many people think of digitisation as technology, protocols and standards.
But crucial to our success is our ability to show people the possibilities and benefits of LoRaWAN®.
Drive it like you stole it!
Trust has a further dimension: data protection and data security.
The „LoRaWAN Certified™“-mark provides the market with confidence that the devices are performing as expected.
LoRaWAN® is the Black Horse, not the Sleeping Dragon!
